Impact of budgetary support on education

2930. SHRIMATI SUPRIYA SULE: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether his Ministry has pointed that reduction in Central budgetary support on education will adversely affect the gains made by Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA) to universalize elementary education;

(b) if so, whether his Ministry has demanded that the current level of Centre's fiscal commitment of 75 per cent of required funds;

(c) if so, to what extent Government have agreed to provide more funds for the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan;

(d) to what extent it will be helpful; and

(e) whether Government would continue with 75:25 funding pattern?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI MD. ALIASHRAF FATMI): (a) to (e) As per the approved Centrally sponsored scheme of the Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan (SSA), the funding pattern between the Centre and State Governments in 11th Plan is laid down in the ratio of 50:50. The State Governments have requested Government of India to have a 75:25 sharing pattern for the Xlth Plan period, while North Eastern States have requested for a 90:10 ratio.
